

English

Fiction

Stories involving Fantasy
Focus on John Burningham's 'Oil! Get Off Our Train' and includes role-playing, developing characters and settings and writing own story.

Poetry

Focus on the work of Benjamin Zephaniah, both written and performance

Non-Fiction

Exploring features and layout of information books, researching a chosen mode of transport and writing on information pages.

Science

- This term we will be looking at electricity. Working safely with electricity we will learn about voltage and current in circuits.

MFL

-

Ash Class Plans – Spring 1 2018

Music

- As this term's topic is travel and transport, we will be listening to and describing Jazz and Blues music on the theme of trains. We will also be working on rhythm.

Food Tech

We will be cooking eggs in a variety of ways and looking at their health benefits.

Topic

This term's topic is 'Travel & Transportation'. We will be looking at how modes of transport have changed overtime, and then focusing on specific transport, chosen by the pupils, looking at their designs and features. We will then become Travel Agents, researching why people travel to different locations around the

RE

- This term's unit is on Life and Death. We will be learning about what Hindus and Christians believe about the soul, and what happens to it when we die.

PE

-

PSHE

Bullying. Recognising what bullying is, ways in which it can take place, how it makes everyone feel and what we can do to stop it.

Maths

This term we will focus on the following areas:

Multiplication using arrays, and then how this links to division.

Fractions of shape, number and quantity.

Addition and subtraction of 3-digit numbers and estimating.

Ordering, rounding and partitioning 3-digit numbers

Computer Science

Digital Literacy

Getting started online.

Staying Safe-
SMART